2020 members by the year 2020

When can we do an M- night? (Give what I got from convention) should have one the week of October 21st for the women of today week.

Then we can take pictures and send it to Mary Ann Johnson for her "Shout out with Pride"

7:15 Membership Vice president

7:20 President Report: Thank you for all coming to night. First, I want to talk to you about keeping tract of your service hours and filling out your success forms and turning them in.

Secondly, I would like to talk to about doing reports and turning them in to Jodi after the meeting.

Thirdly, I would like to talk about projects and getting some going.

Lastly: I would like you to all write a note about where your passion lays. What kind of project would get you excited about Women of today? What would make you stay in women of today? Let's open that passion and work on that. Please turn them in to me by next meeting and talk about it.

7:30 Programming Reports.

Living and learning,

Setting goals and turning in your certifications, and doing things like an impromptu, or competing in the effective writing competition at state,

Isaac's journey

The Hope Run raised $1,480. 96 for cancer research this year. Effective January 1st 2015 all monies raised for Isaac's Journey Foundation should be sent to the University of Minnesota earmarked for "Isaac's Hope Fund for curing childhood cancer – 11483".

Our new project starts in may of 2015 for Breaking Free. I would like to take on a project for that and build a room.

Women's Wellness

Getting physical is all about getting active, walk, run, dance, play, clean. Just get up and move. Set small goals and work up to the big ones and Waa Laa SUCCESS!

Newsletter

The state would like us to do a Newslet and send it in for the second trimester. I have a sample of one of what they want and I am wondering if anyone would like this challenge.

Record and recognition

Fill out your success forms and send them in for the second trimester. They are due by January 2nd 2015 and sent them to R&R SPM.

Public relations

Women's of Today's Week October 21st through 25th
